

Reddit Posts Report (CSV Source) — India-specific Nature

Total Posts Processed: 5

Sentiment Analysis Summary

Pro-India: 2 posts (40.0%)
Anti-India: 1 posts (20.0%)
Anti-Government: 1 posts (20.0%)
Neutral: 1 posts (20.0%)

Topic Modeling Summary

Topic 0: 1 posts
Topic 1: 1 posts
Topic 2: 3 posts

Nature (India-specific) Summary

call-to-action: 1 posts (20.0%)
communal: 1 posts (20.0%)
pro-india: 1 posts (20.0%)
anti-government: 1 posts (20.0%)
neutral: 1 posts (20.0%)

Flagged Potentially Dangerous Posts

Post (teaser)	Subreddit	Author	Sentiment	Nature	Topic	Date
If India vs Pakistan doesn't happen, 50% of the World Cup is gone" – Rashid Latif urges Pakistan to boycott T20 WC ██████ 5 Former Pakistan cricketer Rashid Latif has made a strong statement amid ongoing tensions, claiming that an India–Pakistan clash is crucial for the World Cup's value. He suggests Pakistan should stand with Bangladesh and refuse to play the T20 World Cup to challenge the existing cricket power structure. His comments have sparked intense debate among fans about politics, revenue, and the future of international cricket. What's your take	indiancricketcrowd	For_Anxiety_6352	Anti-India	call-to-action	2	2026-01-22 12:35

All Collected Posts

Date	Subreddit	Author	Score	Nature	Post (teaser)
2026-01-22 12:35	indiancricketcrowd	Far_Anxiety_6352	4	call-to-action	If India vs Pakistan doesn't happen, 50% of the World Cup is gone" – Rashid Latif urges Pakistan to boycott T20 WC ■■■■■ 5 Former Pakistan cricketer Rashid Latif has made a strong statement amid ongoing tensions, claiming that an India–Pakistan clash is crucial for the World Cup's value. He suggests Pakistan should stand with Bangladesh and refuse to play the T20 World Cup to challenge the existing cricket power structure. His comments have sparked intense debate among fans about politics, revenue, and the future of international cricket. What's your take
2026-01-22 12:33	IndianLeft	Divagaran5	2	communal	How do you maintain your revolutionary optimism? 1 hi all. it has been a while since I believe social ownership of means of production to be the solution to solving most of the world's miseries, and by that, the capture of political power by the working class by a revolution. it has been a while, probably more than a year, and now I think and I see things and probably have a more Marxist outlook on life, i.e. seeing the base of the issue rather than seeing it on the surface. I think it makes me a better person, has made me I believe. I also organize whenever I have the time for it and do some other works. so day by day, the reality is hitting hard as we put thought to practice. and I see the revolution more distant day by day, though I never rule out the possibility of one brewing. because dialectical motion of things can never be static, with small changes, come the big ones. but ...
2026-01-22 11:57	MakeNewFriendsHere	Weak_Carob_1741	1	pro-india	20M Medico from Kerala looking for some friends 1 Hey!!!!I'm 20M gay medico from Kerala, India. I'm so lazy that I'm on my phone during my internals.. anyway I'm interested in Indian movies and politics.. My favourite genre is horror and thriller.. I'm a good listener and i won't judge you so feel free to share anything... if anyone interested dm me♥■

Date	Subreddit	Author	Score	Nature	Post (teaser)
2026-01-22 11:46	unhingedKenya	DirectorSea9571	1	anti-government	Kenya Airways ✈️🇰🇪. A National Carrier Reduced to a Case Study in Decay 0 Kenya Airways is not experiencing hardship, it is rotting in plain sight. Undermined by internal sabotage, alleged spare parts theft, & suffocating political entanglements, the airline now mirrors a terminal patient surviving on denial instead of direction. The disgrace is visible on the apron itself aircraft dispatched in patched or incomplete livery, signalling an institution unable to finance even its own identity, let alone compete credibly. As rivals across the continent renew fleets & sharpen execution, KQ drags ageing 737s through regional skies, selling hollow assurances to Kenyans & demanding belief in a seriousness that no longer exists. This decay is the predictable outcome of corruption tolerated, arrogance protected, & incompetence left airborne. The collapse has moved from boardrooms into public ...
2026-01-22 11:07	Neet_india	not_available_141	4	neutral	Life advise for Juniors from a failed Senior 2 Learn from my story below and don't make such mistakes in your neet journey. Thank you Now that I look back at my last two years i can only see a series of wrong decisions that has led to my current state. Just like thousands of NEET and JEE aspirants in India, I scored 96.2% in ICSE Class 10. I was flying high—full of confidence, maybe too much. I thought marks were everything. I didn't look back, and I didn't think ahead. It was just me, my percentage, and a dangerous amount of false confidence. Everyone around me advised the same thing: "Take Biology. It's perfect for you." My two sisters were MBBS students at that time, so people assumed my path would be easy. I listened. I left behind my first love—Computer Science, a subject in which I scored 99 in Class 10—and chose PCB. That was my first big mistake. My second mistake was ...